

Benefits and Obligations for Writers in Residence

Terms of Participation Library Writer in Residence Pima County Public Library

Letter of Support

I, _____ [Author Name] _____ agree to participate in the Library Writer in Residence program at Pima County Public Library, from February 1 to April 30 OR May 1 to July 31, 2020 for the sum of $800 per month. I understand that, as a Writer in Residence, I will spend 16 hours per week in the Library. Of this time, I will devote five hours per week to ½-hour individual, private writing consultations, and two hours per month to formal workshops or other programs in support of Pima County residents.

Author Name

Date

Features that your library's space offers:

- Parking available or parking pass provided
- Separate work space and consultation hours space
- Ability to lock laptop, supplies, etc. during breaks
- Access to break room, etc. for lunch storage
- Work space and consultation space are available at regular hours throughout the week

February March April

1st large workshop of the year in conjunction with the Tucson Festival of Books: University of Arizona Campus • March 14 -15, 2020 • 9:30am to 5:30pm

May June July

Final large workshop in conjunction with MegaMania: Represent your fandom. Last year: Saturday, July 13, 2019, 1–5 pm at Pima Community College Downtown Campus 1255 N Stone Ave. MegaMania is our annual summer festival of cosplay, gaming, crafts, local authors & artists, and all-around geekery. All ages. Free for everyone!